- A. Call to Order – Mayor Heidmann called the meeting to order at 6:32 p.m.

- B. Ryan Schmidt, Schlenner Wenner & Co. – Presentation of the 2019 Audited Financial Statements for the City of Nisswa – Ryan Schmidt joined the meeting remotely and was able to present the results of the audit through PowerPoint. Schmidt provided a summarized overview of the 2019 audit process for the City of Nisswa. The presentation included review of the audit results, audit adjustments, internal control issues, Minnesota legal compliance, financial/fund highlights to include revenues, expenditures and trend analysis, and outstanding long-term debt. For the 2019 year Schlenner Wenner & Co. expressed an unmodified (clean) opinion on the City’s financial statements. Max thanked Schmidt and his team at Schlenner Wenner & Co. and noted it is a pleasure to work with them.

- C. Adjourn – There being no further business, motion by Jacobson, seconded by Johnson to adjourn the City Council Workshop meeting at 6:54 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

Respectfully Submitted,

Fred Heidmann, Mayor

Jenny Max, City Administrator
